Yoke’s $1 Family Feast Night
I love Westminster! Y’all are just the most loving, real, open, accepting group of folks I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. As I stood in front of the crowd at the vigil for Orlando, I just wanted to tell all those people to come to Westminster because I know you would welcome them in and love them till their tears dried up. Thank you for being the most Open and Affirming church in Spokane, and for allowing me to be your openly, and very public, gay pastor. Without your constant support, I would never be able to do the work that needs to be done in the LGBTQ community.

The love that you give doesn’t just look outward, either. Unfortunately, we have had some recent serious illnesses and deaths in our congregation, and I love how the church rallies around the hurting person. Your love is more than just words; it’s cards and letters and Facebook posts, and trips to the hospital and plans for memorial suppers. Westminster really knows what it means to Be The Church, as our new banner says. (and doesn’t it look beautiful?!)

We have made it through the first month of Pastor Andy’s sabbatical without any problems, which is a huge relief to me, and I know we will weather the next two months by leaning on each other and continuing to Be The Church within, and outside, our gorgeous grey stone walls.

I hope you are enjoying the warmer weather, as much as I am! Stay cool!

Pastor Jan ~
I continue to try make sense of the loss and hate from the Orlando mass shooting, still. I’m angry about the hate and the violence in this country, the bigotry, the homophobia and Islamophobia. My desire to be an advocate for peace is strong, even as some family members call me a fool and dangerous, for being so. For them hate and violence toward others is okay in the name of protecting themselves, not from an actual intruder, but from entire groups who seem to be a threat. I struggle not to own this on their behalf. Their hate is not mine, but I do believe, in my soul, that I have a responsibility to respond to instances of bigotry when I see them. How do I turn these feelings into something useful? This has become a very real discernment process about how to respond faithfully. Wrestling with the questions: Do I speak out against hate in a faithful way? How have I been complicit in allowing hurtful, bigoted remarks to go unchallenged? Where could I have done better by keeping the conversation open, or ending the conversation when it becomes disrespectful? How would I like someone to respond on my behalf? Where is God in all this? How do we listen to each other when our values are so far apart?

There are times when I feel tongue-tied and unprepared; or when I want to boomerang back what was slung my way. There are times, when respectful dialogue cannot happen, and in those cases, it is wise to remove yourself from the situation. But if you are asking some of the same questions I am; if you have ever shared similar feelings…please take a look at these resources. They illustrate how to speak out respectfully against bigotry, hateful speech, online posting, etc.

https://www.splcenter.org/20150126/speak-responding-everyday-bigotry#everyday-bigotry

This is a process filled with opportunities to be more life-affirming, to live my faith more directly. This is part of my spiritual journey that I share with you today. What is your journey looking like as you move forward? ❇️

Coming Up!
Although we are in the summer season, Westminster is getting ready for Small Group Ministry, that begins in the fall. What is Small Group Ministry?

- It is where you meet regularly with a group of 5-8.
- You have the opportunity to talk about a meaningful topic and to listen to your fellow group members.
- It's a place to be heard in a safe setting. This is a time for deep, focused listening, to be supported and encouraged. As we share more of ourselves, our community deepens.
- Small group ministry is a place to get to know people much better
- It develops our communication and listening skills
- It provides an opportunity to serve Westminster, and the wider community, in a service-project together
- Learning about and enjoying one another---so important!

Look for more information about signing up for a group, later this summer!

Council Updates:
1. Authorized Serving Our Neighbors (SON) to disperse from the Stevenson Fund $10,000 annually. If special circumstances allow, SON may request additional from Council
2. Voted Rob Sauders to join Education and Spiritual Growth Committee
3. Approved Safe Conduct Policy, as presented by Education and Spiritual Growth

Jenn Marquis ~

Sunday, July 3
there will be no worship service at The Lounge.
All are invited to worship in Cowley Park at 10:30 am.

The Lounge

"Come as you are, be who you are"...doesn’t that sound wonderful? That’s the motto for Westminster’s evening worship service, The Lounge. At The Lounge, we bring our whole selves, warts and all, and find that we have a common need for spirituality in order to feel fully human.

So, we come together, every Sunday in the Mayflower room at 5:30 pm, to praise and worship, to sing, to pray, to learn, and to share Christ’s love. In the relaxed setting of The Lounge, we find we are stronger, together.
CAMPING, . . .

For more information, please contact Pastor Jan Shannon at pastorjan@westminsterucc.org

The camp is totally LGBTQ+ affirming, will be a safe place to express your sexual orientation or gender identity, and where God’s love will be shown to ALL who attend.

This is a time for LGBTQ+ folks of faith to reconnect with the God who loves them, and a place for non-religious LGBTQ+ folks to just enjoy a relaxing weekend on the lake.

Rae. G. (Martin) McCaIN

McCAIN, Rae G. (Martin)

Died June 7, 2016, at her home in Spokane. She was 96 years old.
Rae was born in Newport, WA to George and Minerva (Williams) Martin. When her mother remarried Alonzo (Lon) Shackelton, she gradually became the big sister to Bruce Shackelton, Betty (Shackelton) Boyd, Wade Shackelton, Patricia (Shackelton) Borgau, William Shackelton, Dennis Shackelton, and Larry Shackelton. She graduated from Ione (WA) High School, Washington State College, with a degree in Home Economics and Education, and Eastern Washington State College with a master’s degree in Library Science. Her first teaching job was in Entiat, WA, where she met her husband Charles McCain. The couple celebrated 74 years of marriage in March. The family later moved to Metairie Falls, WA, where she was recruited as a teacher.
The couple have five children: Karen Wilson-Bell (Justin) of Spokane, Dwight McCain (Marty) of Coeur d’Alene, ID, Jody Leifer of Spokane, Judy McCain of Spokane, and Jeff McCain of Juneau, AK. During her many years as a teacher, Rae taught Home Economics, English, Second Grade, Third Grade, Typing, Shorthand, Reading, Bookkeeping, and Chorus. She spent the last ten years of her teaching career as a school librarian.
In addition to raising a family and a career in education, Rae was active in the Metairie Falls Community Congregational Church, the American Legion Auxiliary, and many other community organizations. She was the Director of Evergreen Girls’ State, held at Central Washington State University in Ellensburg for many years. After her retirement from teaching she was active in the Retired Teachers Organization and worked to establish the Pend Oreille County Library, including a branch in the Cutter Theater building, which is the former Metairie Falls School, the building where she taught for many years.
Rae was known to have a book in her hand at all times and amassed an incredible library. She was a great seamstress and cook, and had briefly worked as a nutritionist. In earlier years she was an avid golfer and skier, being on the WSC ski team while in college. After retirement, she and Charles enjoyed travel. After the couple moved to Spokane, they joined Westminster Congregational United Church of Christ, and she settled down to become an avid sports fan (Cougars, Zags, and Mariners).
Rae is survived by her husband Charles, their five children, her sister, Patricia Bergau (Swede), ten grandchildren: Rick Wilson, Michael Wilson, David Wilson, Erin Anderson, Naomi McCain, Luke Leifer, Lindy Thompson, Madison McGinnis, Travis McCain and Ariel Gibson; eleven great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren, sixteen nieces and nephews.
A memorial service is scheduled for her birthday, July 28, 2016, at 10:00 a.m. at Westminster Congregational United Church of Christ, 411 S. Washington Street. Inurnment will follow at 3:30 p.m. in Metairie, Washington, followed by a celebration of life at the Metairie Falls American Legion.

Westminster’s Media Opt-Out Policy

In this digital age, the church takes many pictures of baptisms, choir performances and concerts, worship services, mission trips, special presentations, Sunday School, fellowship activities and community outreach projects. We use these pictures to record, to promote, and to celebrate our church ministries. Pictures are used on bulletin boards, in slide shows and PowerPoint presentations, in publications, and on our church website.

However, some persons may choose not to have their photos, or photos of their children, used and we respect their wishes. Therefore, we are providing a Media Opt-Out form for individuals or families who prefer NOT to have photo-graphs of themselves used by the church. This form can be accessed from our website at: westminsterucc.org/media-opt-out-policy/

If you have no objection to church use of your photograph, you DO NOT need to sign or return this form.
